HILLARY CLINTON Well, 67 percent of the people voted to re- elect me when I ran for my second term, and I was very proud and very humbled by that. Mr. Carter, I have tried my entire life to do what I can to support children and families. You know, right out of law school, I went to work for the Childrens Defense Fund. And Donald talks a lot about, you know, the 30 years Ive been in public service. Im proud of that. You know, I started off as a young lawyer working against discrimination against African- American children in schools and in the criminal justice system. I worked to make sure that kids with disabilities could get a public education, something that I care very much about. I have worked with Latinos— one of my first jobs in politics was down in south Texas registering Latino citizens to be able to vote. So I have a deep devotion, to use your absolutely correct word, to making sure that every American feels like he or she has a place in our country. And I think when you look at the letters that I get, a lot of people are worried that maybe they wouldnt have a place in Donald Trumps America. They write me, and one woman wrote me about her son, Felix. She adopted him from Ethiopia when he was a toddler. Hes 10 years old now. This is the only country hes ever known. And he listens to Donald on TV and he said to his mother one day, will he send me back to Ethiopia if he gets elected? You know, children listen to what is being said. To go back to the very, very first question. And theres a lot of fear— in fact, teachers and parents are calling it the Trump effect. Bullying is up. A lot of people are feeling, you know, uneasy. A lot of kids are expressing their concerns. So, first and foremost, I will do everything I can to reach out to everybody.

MODERATOR Your time, Secretary Clinton.
