MITT ROMNEY But — but the idea that you get a break for shipping jobs overseas is simply not the case. (CROSSTALK)What we do have right now is a setting where Id like to bring money from overseas back to this country. And, finally, Medicaid to states? Im not quite sure where that came in, except this, which is, I would like to take the Medicaid dollars that go to states and say to a state, youre going to get what you got last year, plus inflation, plus 1 percent, and then youre going to manage your care for your poor in the way you think best. And I remember, as a governor, when this idea was floated by Tommy Thompson, the governors — Republican and Democrats — said, please let us do that. We can care for our own poor in so much better and more effective a way than having the federal government tell us how to care for our poor. So — so lets state — one of the magnificent things about this country is the whole idea that states are the laboratories of democracy. Dont have the federal government tell everybody what kind of training programs they have to have and what kind of Medicaid they have to have. Let states do this. And, by the way, if a state gets in trouble, well, we can step in and see if we can find a way to help them.

MODERATOR Lets go.

MITT ROMNEY But — but the right — the right approach is one which relies on the brilliance of our people and states, not the federal government.
