DONALD TRUMP And, honestly, nobody has business doing what I just said, doing that, as late as one or two or three or four days prior to birth. Nobody has that.

MODERATOR All right. Lets move on to the subject of immigration. And there is almost no issue that separates the two of you more than the issue of immigration. Actually, there are a lot of issues that separate the two of you. Mr. Trump, you want to build a wall. Secretary Clinton, you have offered no specific plan for how you want to secure our southern border. Mr. Trump, you are calling for major deportations. Secretary Clinton, you say that within your first 100 days as president youre going to offer a package that includes a pathway to citizenship. The question, really, is, why are you right and your opponent wrong? Mr. Trump, you go first in this segment. You have two minutes.

DONALD TRUMP Well, first of all, she wants to give amnesty, which is a disaster and very unfair to all of the people that are waiting in line for many, many years. We need strong borders. In the audience tonight, we have four mothers of— I mean, these are unbelievable people that Ive gotten to know over a period of years whose children have been killed, brutally killed by people that came into the country illegally. You have thousands of mothers and fathers and relatives all over the country. Theyre coming in illegally. Drugs are pouring in through the border. We have no country if we have no border. Hillary wants to give amnesty. She wants to have open borders. The border— as you know, the Border Patrol agents, 16, 500- plus ICE last week, endorsed me. First time theyve ever endorsed a candidate. It means their job is tougher. But they know whats going on. They know it better than anybody. They want strong borders. They feel we have to have strong borders. I was up in New Hampshire the other day. The biggest complaint they have— its with all of the problems going on in the world, many of the problems caused by Hillary Clinton and by Barack Obama. All of the problems— the single biggest problem is heroin that pours across our southern border. Its just pouring and destroying their youth. Its poisoning the blood of their youth and plenty of other people. We have to have strong borders. We have to keep the drugs out of our country. We are— right now, were getting the drugs, theyre getting the cash. We need strong borders. We need absolute— we cannot give amnesty. Now, I want to build the wall. We need the wall. And the Border Patrol, ICE, they all want the wall. We stop the drugs. We shore up the border. One of my first acts will be to get all of the drug lords, all of the bad ones— we have some bad, bad people in this country that have to go out. Were going to get them out; were going to secure the border. And once the border is secured, at a later date, well make a determination as to the rest. But we have some bad hombres here, and were going to get them out.

MODERATOR Mr. Trump, thank you. Same question to you, Secretary Clinton. Basically, why are you right and Mr. Trump is wrong?
