MITT ROMNEY I couldnt agree more about going forward, but I certainly dont want to go back to the policies of the last four years. The policies of the last four years have seen incomes in America decline every year for middle income families, now down $4, 300 during your term. Twenty- three million Americans still struggling to find a good job. When you came to office 32 million people on food stamps. Today, 47 million people on food stamps. When you came to office, just over $10 trillion in debt, now $16 trillion in debt. It hasnt worked. You said by now wed be at 5. 4 percent unemployment. Were 9 million jobs short of that. Ive met some of those people. Ive met them in Appleton, Wisconsin. I met a young woman in — in Philadelphia whos coming out of — out of college, cant find work. Ive been — Ann was with someone just the other day that was just weeping about not being able to get work. Its just a tragedy in a nation so prosperous as ours, that the last four years have been so hard. And thats why its so critical, that we make America once again the most attractive place in the world to start businesses, to build jobs, to grow the economy. And thats not going to happen by just hiring teachers. Look, I love to — I love teachers, and Im happy to have states and communities that want to hire teachers do that. By the way, I dont like to have the federal government start pushing its weight deeper and deeper into our schools. Let the states and localities do that. I was a governor. The federal government didnt hire our teachers. UNIDENTIFIED

AUDIENCE Governor?

MITT ROMNEY But I love teachers. But I want to get our private sector growing and I know how to do it.
