HILLARY CLINTON You know, under our Constitution, presidents have something called veto power. Look, he has now said repeatedly, “30 years this and 30 years that.” So let me talk about my 30 years in public service. Im very glad to do so. Eight million kids every year have health insurance, because when I was first lady I worked with Democrats and Republicans to create the Childrens Health Insurance Program. Hundreds of thousands of kids now have a chance to be adopted because I worked to change our adoption and foster care system. After 9/11, I went to work with Republican mayor, governor and president to rebuild New York and to get health care for our first responders who were suffering because they had run toward danger and gotten sickened by it. Hundreds of thousands of National Guard and Reserve members have health care because of work that I did, and children have safer medicines because I was able to pass a law that required the dosing to be more carefully done. When I was secretary of state, I went around the world advocating for our country, but also advocating for womens rights, to make sure that women had a decent chance to have a better life and negotiated a treaty with Russia to lower nuclear weapons. Four hundred pieces of legislation have my name on it as a sponsor or cosponsor when I was a senator for eight years. I worked very hard and was very proud to be re- elected in New York by an even bigger margin than I had been elected the first time. And as president, I will take that work, that bipartisan work, that finding common ground, because you have to be able to get along with people to get things done in Washington.

MODERATOR Thank you, secretary.

HILLARY CLINTON And Ive proven that I can, and for 30 years, Ive produced results for people.

MODERATOR Thank you, secretary. Were going to move on to Syria. Both of you have mentioned that.

DONALD TRUMP She said a lot of things that were false. I mean, I think we should be allowed to maybe...

MODERATOR No, we can— no, Mr. Trump, were going to go on. This is about the audience.

DONALD TRUMP Excuse me. Because she has been a disaster as a senator. A disaster.
