MODERATOR All right. We are going to get to foreign hot spots in a few moments, but the next segment is fitness to be president of the United States. Mr. Trump, at the last debate, you said your talk about grabbing women was just that, talk, and that you'd never actually done it. And since then, as we all know, nine women have come forward and said that you either groped them or kissed them without their consent. Why would so many different women from so many different circumstances over so many different years, why would they all in this last couple of weeks make up— you deny this— why would they all make up these stories? And, since this is a question for both of you, Secretary Clinton, Mr. Trump says what your husband did and that you defended was even worse. Mr. Trump, you go first.

DONALD TRUMP Well, first of all, those stories have been largely debunked. Those people— I don't know those people. I have a feeling how they came. I believe it was her campaign that did it. Just like if you look at what came out today on the clips where I was wondering what happened with my rally in Chicago and other rallies where we had such violence? She's the one and Obama that caused the violence. They hired people— they paid them $1, 500, and they're on tape saying be violent, cause fights, do bad things. I would say the only way— because those stories are all totally false, I have to say that. And I didn't even apologize to my wife, who's sitting right here, because I didn't do anything. I didn't know any of these— I didn't see these women. These women— the woman on the plane, the— I think they want either fame or her campaign did it. And I think it's her campaign. Because what I saw what they did, which is a criminal act, by the way, where they're telling people to go out and start fist-fights and start violence. And I'll tell you what, in particular in Chicago, people were hurt and people could have been killed in that riot. And that was now all on tape, started by her. I believe, Chris, that she got these people to step forward. If it wasn't, they get their 10 minutes of fame. But they were all totally— it was all fiction. It was lies, and it was fiction.

HILLARY CLINTON Well...

MODERATOR Secretary Clinton?

HILLARY CLINTON At the last debate, we heard Donald talking about what he did to women. And after that, a number of women have come forward saying that's exactly what he did to them. Now, what was his response? Well, he held a number of big rallies where he said that he could not possibly have done those things to those women because they were not attractive enough for them to be assaulted.

DONALD TRUMP I did not say that. I did not say that.

HILLARY CLINTON In fact, he went on to say...

MODERATOR Her two minutes— sir, her two minutes. Her two minutes.

DONALD TRUMP I did not say that.

MODERATOR Its her two minutes.

HILLARY CLINTON He went on to say, “Look at her. I dont think so.” About another woman, he said, “That wouldnt be my first choice.” He attacked the woman reporter writing the story, called her “disgusting,” as he has called a number of women during this campaign. Donald thinks belittling women makes him bigger. He goes after their dignity, their self-worth, and I dont think there is a woman anywhere who doesnt know what that feels like. So we now know what Donald thinks and what he says and how he acts toward women. Thats who Donald is. I think its really up to all of us to demonstrate who we are and who our country is, and to stand up and be very clear about what we expect from our next president, how we want to bring our country together, where we dont want to have the kind of pitting of people one against the other, where instead we celebrate our diversity, we lift people up, and we make our country even greater. America is great, because America is good. And it really is up to all of us to make that true, now and in the future, and particularly for our children and our grandchildren.

MODERATOR Mr. Trump. . .

DONALD TRUMP Nobody has more respect for women than I do. Nobody. [laughter] Nobody has more respect. . .

MODERATOR Please, everybody.

DONALD TRUMP And frankly, those stories have been largely debunked. And I really want to just talk about something slightly different. She mentions this, which is all fiction, all fictionalized, probably or possibly started by her and her very sleazy campaign. But I will tell you what isnt fictionalized are her e- mails, where she destroyed 33, 000 e- mails criminally, criminally, after getting a subpoena from the United States Congress. What happened to the FBI, I dont know. We have a great general, four- star general, today you read it in all of the papers, going to potentially serve five years in jail for lying to the FBI. One lie. Shes lied hundreds of times to the people, to Congress, and to the FBI. Hes going to probably go to jail. This is a four- star general. And she gets away with it, and she can run for the presidency of the United States? Thats really what you should be talking about, not fiction, where somebody wants fame or where they come out of her crooked campaign.

MODERATOR Secretary Clinton?

HILLARY CLINTON Well, every time Donald is pushed on something which is obviously uncomfortable, like what these women are saying, he immediately goes to denying responsibility. And its not just about women. He never apologizes or says hes sorry for anything. So we know what he has said and what hes done to women. But he also went after a disabled reporter, mocked and mimicked him on national television.

DONALD TRUMP Wrong.

HILLARY CLINTON He went after Mr. and Mrs. Khan, the parents of a young man who died serving our country, a Gold Star family, because of their religion. He went after John McCain, a prisoner of war, said he prefers “people who arent captured.” He went after a federal judge, born in Indiana, but who Donald said couldnt be trusted to try the fraud and racketeering case against Trump University because his parents were Mexican. So its not one thing. This is a pattern, a pattern of divisiveness, of a very dark and in many ways dangerous vision of our country, where he incites violence, where he applauds people who are pushing and pulling and punching at his rallies. That is not who America is. And I hope that as we move in the last weeks of this campaign, more and more people will understand what's at stake in this election. It really does come down to what kind of country we are going to have.

DONALD TRUMP So sad when she talks about violence at my rallies, and she caused the violence. It's on tape.

MODERATOR During the last...
