MODERATOR We have very little time left and it occurs to me that we have talked all this time and there has not been one question about some of the racial tensions and ethnic tensions in America. Is there anyone in this audience that would like to pose a question to the candidates on this? AUDIENCE

AUDIENCE What Id like to know, and this is to any of the three of you, is aside from the recent accomplishment of your party, aside from those accomplishments in racial representation, and without citing any of your current appointments or successful elections, when do you estimate your party will both nominate and elect an Afro- American and female ticket to the presidency of the U. S. ?

MODERATOR Governor Clinton, why dont you answer that first?

BILL CLINTON Well, I dont have any idea but I hope it will happen some time in my lifetime. AUDIENCE

AUDIENCE I do, too.

BILL CLINTON I believe that this country is electing more and more African Americans and Latinos and Asian Americans who are representing districts that are themselves not necessarily of a majority of their race. The American people are beginning to vote across racial lines, and I hope it will happen more and more. More and more women are being elected. Look at all these women Senate candidates we have here. And you know, according to my mother and my wife and my daughter, this world would be a lot better place if women were running it most of the time. I do think there are special experiences and judgments and backgrounds and understandings that women bring to this process, by the way. This lady said here, how have you been affected by the economy. I mean, women know whats it like to be paid an unequal amount for equal work. They know what its like not to have flexible working hours. They know what its like not to have family leave or childcare. So I think it would be a good thing for America if it happened. And I think it will happen in my lifetime.
