MODERATOR Well, Governor, let me just ask you. If you declare them a currency manipulator on day one, some people are — say youre just going to start a trade war with China on day one. Is that — isnt there a risk that that could happen?

MITT ROMNEY Well, they sell us about this much stuff every year, and we sell them about this much stuff every year. So its pretty clear who doesnt want a trade war. And theres one going on right now, which we dont know about it. Its a silent one. And theyre winning. We have enormous trade imbalance with China, and its worse this year than last year, and its worse last year than the year before. And so we have to understand that we cant just surrender and lose jobs year in and year out. We have to say to our friend in China, look, you guys are playing aggressively. We understand it. But this cant keep on going. You cant keep on holding down the value of your currency, stealing our intellectual property, counterfeiting our products, selling them around the world, even to the United States. I was with one company that makes valves and — and process industries and they said, look, we were — we were having some valves coming in that — that were broken and we had to repair them under warranty and we looked them and — and they had our serial number on them. And then we noticed that there was more than one with that same serial number. They were counterfeit products being made overseas with the same serial number as a U. S. company, the same packaging, these were being sold into our market and around the world as if they were made by the U. S. competitor. This cant go on. I want a great relationship with China. China can be our partner, but — but that doesnt mean they can just roll all over us and steal our jobs on an unfair basis.
