MODERATOR LEHRER: New question for Mr. Perot. You have 2 minutes to answer, and Ann will ask it.COMPTON: Mr. Perot, even if you've got what people say are the guts to take on changes in the most popular, the most sacred of the entitlements, Medicare, people say you haven't a prayer of actually getting anything passed in Washington. Since a president isn't a lone ranger, how in the world can you make some of those unpopular changes?
