HILLARY CLINTON Well, its not only my opinion. Its the opinion of many others, national security experts, Republicans, former Republican members of Congress. But its in part because those of us who have had the great privilege of seeing this job up close and know how difficult it is, and its not just because I watched my husband take a $300 billion deficit and turn it into a $200 billion surplus, and 23 million new jobs were created, and incomes went up for everybody. Everybody. African- American incomes went up 33 percent. And its not just because I worked with George W. Bush after 9/11, and I was very proud that when I told him what the city needed, what we needed to recover, he said youve got it, and he never wavered. He stuck with me. And I have worked and I admire President Obama. He inherited the worst financial crisis since the Great Depression. That was a terrible time for our country.

MODERATOR We have to move along.

HILLARY CLINTON Nine million people lost their jobs.

MODERATOR Secretary Clinton, we have to. . .

HILLARY CLINTON Five million homes were lost.

MODERATOR Secretary Clinton, were moving on.

HILLARY CLINTON And $13 trillion in family wealth was wiped out. We are back on the right track. He would send us back into recession with his tax plans that benefit the wealthiest of Americans.

MODERATOR Secretary Clinton, we are moving to an audience question. Were almost out of time. We have another. . .

DONALD TRUMP We have the slowest growth since 1929.

MODERATOR Mr. Trump, were moving to an audience question.

DONALD TRUMP It is— our country has the slowest growth and jobs are a disaster.

MODERATOR Mr. Trump, Secretary Clinton, we want to get to the audience. Thank you very much both of you. [laughter] We have another audience question. Beth Miller has a question for both candidates.
